GENERAL SECRETARY. 19 MAY 1938 SSR.

Regarding the payment of the Cash Grant of Rs.17-7-0 relating to Sri Chennigarayaswami Temple at Alur, to the Archak of Sri Gopalakrishnaswami Temple at Haradanahalli, Chamarajanagar Taluk.

In forwarding herewith copy of letter No.H.646/37 dated 18-4-1938 with its enclosures, received from the Deputy Commissioner, Mysore District, on the above subject, I have the honor to state that the facts of the case are fully set forth in the Deputy Commissioner's letter. As Sri Chennigarayaswami temple at Alur was in ruins and the worship in the temple was completely neglected, the Utsava Vigraha of the temple was removed to Sri Gopalakrishnaswamy temple at Haradanahalli Chamarajanagar Taluk, and arrangements made therefor for the worship of the deity, leaving the Moola-Vigraha in the defunct temple, as it was not possible to remove it. The Muzrai Superintendent, in his Rupakari No.568 dated 27-1-1901 (copy enclosed), had also permitted, temporarily, for the payment of the cash grant of Rs 17-7-0 relating to the defunct institution, to the archak of the Sri Gopalakrishnaswami temple for worshipping the Utsava Vigraha referred to above. It is reported that the villagers of Alur are unable to contribute any money towards the renovation of the ruined temple. The Deputy Commissioner requests that the Order of the Muzrai Superintendent may be ratified. The temple of Sri Gopalakrishnaswamy at Haradanahalli is also in receipt of a cash grant of Rs 101-7-0. As the income of this temple is more than Rs 100 a year,

I request that sanction of Government may kindly be obtained for the transfer of the cash grant of Rs 17-7-0 belonging to the defunct institution of Sri Chennigarayaswami temple at Alur to Sri Gopalakrishnaswamy temple at Haradanahalli, Chamarajanagar Taluk.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Muzrai Commissioner.

Letter No.H.646/37 dated 18-4-38 from the Deputy Commissioner, Mysore District, to the Muzrai Commissioner in Mysore.

Subject:- To ratify the payment of the cash grant of Rs 17-7-0 relating to Sri Chennigarayaswami Temple at Alur to the Archak of Sri Gopalakrishnaswamy Temple at Haradanahalli, Chamarajnagar Taluk.

I have the honor to state that as Sri Chennigarayaswamy temple at Alur was in ruins, the worship in the temple was completely neglected and on account of this reason, the 'Utsava Vigraha' of the temple was removed to Sri Gopalakrishnaswamy temple at Haradanahalli, Chamarajanagar Taluk, where proper arrangements had been made for the worship of the deity. The Moola Vigraha of the defunct temple was left there alone as it was not possible to remove it to Gopalakrishnaswamy temple at Haradanahalli.

2. The Muzrai Superintendent in his Rupakari No.568 dated 27th January 1901 (copy enclosed) ordered as a temporary measure that the cash grant of Rs17-7-0 relating to the defunct institution may be paid to the Archak of Sri Gopalakrishnaswamy temple for worshipping the Utsava Vigraha referred to above.

3. When the auditors checked the Muzrai accounts of Chamarajanagar Taluk on 13th January 1936, they observed that the order of the Muzrai Superintendent stated above is only temporary and requested that proper sanction for the payment of the cash grant in question may be obtained.

4. In pursuance of the above audit objection the Amildar, Chamarajnagar Taluk, reports that the villagers of Alur are unable to contribute any money towards the renovation of the ruined temple and therefore recommends that the order of the Muzrai Superintendent regarding the payment of the cash grant to the archak of Sri Gopalakrishnaswamy temple at Haradanahalli, Chamarajanagar Taluk, may be made permanent in consideration of the fact that the deity is worshipped by him regularly.

5. In view of the circumstances explained by the Amildar, I reques that the order of the Muzrai Superintendent may kindly be ratified.

Letter No.C. 1577/37-38 dated 17th May 1938 from the Muzrai Commissioner in Mysore, requesting sanction to transfer the payment of the cash grant of Rs.17-7-0 of the Sri Chennigarayaswami Temple at Alur a defunct institution to the Sri Gopalakrishnaswami temple at Hardanahalli, Chamarajanagar Taluk.

ORDER No. 1559-61/Muzy 292-37-2
Dated, Bangalore, the 2nd June 1938.

It is reported that as Sri Chennagarayaswami temple at Alur in the Chamarajangar Taluk, was in ruins and the worship in the temple was completely neglected the Utsva Vigraha of the temple was removed to Sri Gopalakrishnaswami temple at Hardanahalli in the same taluk and arrangements made there for the worship of the deity, leaving the Moola-Vigraha in the defunct temple, as it was not possible to remove it. The Muzrai Superintendent in his Rupakari No. 568 dated 27th January 1901 had also temporarily permitted the payment of the cash grant of Rs. 17-7-0 of the defunct temple to the archael of Sri Gopalakrishnaswami temple for worshipping the Utsava Vigraha referred to above. The villagers of Alur are also reported to be unable to contribute any money towards the renovation of the ruined temple. The Muzrai Commissioner therefore requested that the order of the Muzrai Superintendent in transferring the grant of the defunct temple to the Sri Gopalakrishnaswami Temple which is in receipt of a cash grant of Rs.101-7-0 may be ratified. In the circumstances reported, the recommendation of the Muzrai Commissioner to transfer the cash grant of the temple amounting to Rs. 17-7-0 to Sri Gopalakrishnaswami temple at Haradanahalli, Chamarajanagar Taluk is sanctioned.
